2.2 Small Claims Department. Pursuant to the provisions of § 1-2301, Idaho Code, there is hereby created a Small Claims Department of the Magistrates Division which shall have jurisdiction only in cases for the recovery of money where the amount of each claim does not exceed $ 5,000.00.

2.3 All drug forfeiture cases filed pursuant to IC § 37-2744, regard- less of value, shall be heard in the Magistrate Division of the District Court. (ADO 15-2).

3. Mandatory Pretrial Conferences in Bannock County. A mandatory pretrial conference will be held for every proceeding under the Idaho Traffic Infraction Act and all misdemeanor actions in which a plea of not guilty has been received. Notice of the time and place of the pretrial conference and the Judge assigned to preside will be given upon entry of the not guilty plea.

3.1 Pretrials in Bannock County for all misdemeanor cases (excluding domestic violence & stalking) shall be set on Thursday of each week. (ADO 12-4).

4. No Joint Petitions for Divorces shall be accepted in the Sixth Judicial District.

4.1 Proceedings to Modify Decree of Divorce. All proceedings to modify a decree of divorce shall be commenced in accordance with Idaho Family Law Rule (IFLR) 201.

5. Mediation. Pursuant to IFLR 601 mediation will be seriously considered when child custody and visitation issues are involved. Mandatory attendance at a parenting education course is required in Bannock County for all parties filing divorces that involve children under age 18 and for all proceedings that involve child custody issues. Judges in other counties within the Sixth Judicial District may order this class.

5.1 Mediation in all civil cases filed with district court is strongly encouraged and may be mandatory at the court's discretion.

5.2 Mediation in criminal cases is available pursuant to ICR 18.1. Those interested in criminal mediation should review the Criminal Mediators Roster maintained by the Idaho Supreme Court to determine the availability of qualified mediators in the Sixth Judicial District.

6. Entry of Default Judgments. No clerk or deputy clerk shall sign any judgment. All proposed judgments shall be forwarded to the judge assigned the case for review and signature. (ADO 92-8).

6.1 Attorney Fees Guidelines on Default Judgements.

Except for good cause shown, in any civil case where the claim does not exceed $10,000.00 attorney fees may not exceed the amount of the principal at filing up to a maximum of $500.00. In claims exceeding $10,000.00, attorney fees will be granted in an amount not to exceed 10% of the principal at filing.

7. Reduction of Felonies. Felonies reduced to misdemeanors in the district court may be sentenced in accordance with the Felony Case Flow Management Plan Rule 2.2 or remanded to the magistrate who presided over the preliminary hearing.

7.1 Change of Plea on Felony Reduction to a Misdemeanor. If the District Court takes a plea of guilty at the time of reduction of the charge the Defendant shall complete a "Certificate of Rights" form prior to entry of the plea.

8. Change of Plea. All defendants must complete a Guilty Plea Questionnaire, Agreement of Supervision, and PSI face sheet forms prior to entry of a change of plea for a felony in district court. Completed forms shall be provided to the court at least 24 hours prior to the hearing. Forms may be downloaded at: www.bannockcounty.us/courts/criminal/.

9. Pretrial Release Program. The Courts of the District will participate in the Bannock County Pretrial Release Court Services Program as administered under guidelines established by ADO 16-5.

10. Request and use of Electronic Recordings of Court Proceedings. All requests for and use of electronically recorded court proceedings must comply with IAR 27 (d) & (e) and ADO 08-3.

11. Criminal Case flow Management Plan. The District Judges of the Sixth Judicial District adopt and hereby incorporate into these local rules those Case flow Management Plans as adopted by the Sixth Judicial District Judges and approved by the Idaho Supreme Court. The Plans approved as of this date are the Felony Criminal, Child Protection, and Family Law Case flow Management Plan. The plans are accessed at www.bannockcounty.us/courts/.

12. Preliminary Hearings. Attorneys shall meet and confer at least 48 hours prior to the scheduled preliminary hearing and defending attorneys shall notify the court at least 24 hours in advance of the preliminary hearing whether it will be waived or contested. If the defendant chooses to waive the right to a preliminary hearing through written waiver, the magistrate judge shall accept the waiver without further hearing and bind the case over to the District Court.

13. Civil Protection Order Filings. Civil protection order petitions filed after 4:00 P.M. on a judicial day will not be reviewed by the court until the next judicial day. The assigned judge has the discretion to review a petition filed after 4:00 p.m. upon considering the availability of court staff to process the documents during business hours.

14. Bond Forfeitures. Courts in the Sixth Judicial District will not accept bond forfeitures where the amount is less than assessed court costs.

This order supersedes all prior orders of the court referring to the matters contained herein and is effective upon approval from the Idaho Supreme Court.
